PRELUDE WELCOME ANNOUNCEMENTS

WE APPROACH GOD

“What’s Christmas about, if not hope and giving a hand where it’s needed? Setting things right, before the end of the old year.”
...Anne Perry

“O Holy Night”
sung by Charles MacTavish

LIGHTING OF THE CHRIST CANDLE:

One: Come with joy this holy night. Come receive again the words of “good news of great joy for all the people” (Luke 2:10b)

All: For unto us is born this day in Bethlehem Christ our Saviour

Together: “A Candle Is Burning” verse 5 6

One: As family and friends let us come together,

All: to receive Christ’s light of hope, peace, joy and love. Amen.

CHRISTMAS CAROL: “O Come, All Ye Faithful” 60

CHRISTMAS PRAYER: (begin with silence) God of the Shepherds keeping watch in the night, help us to hear the Angel’s good news of great joy: a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord, has been born and once again we find him wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger. May we like the Shepherds before us, keep watch in the night, and let us not be afraid of the dark. For there you are God, holding our hands, as we walk with one another, believing that the light will shine again. May the wonder and awe that filled the eyes of the Shepherds be awakened within us tonight. May it lead us to renewed awareness and appreciation of whatever we too easily take for granted. And may the bonds of love for one another be strengthened as we heed your call to do your work of kindness and justice in this world. Amen.

THE OFFERTORY PRAYER: God of Bethlehem, help us to recognize your presence in this world. We need you to inspire us to look beyond our own comfortable, cozy spaces to find you dwelling among the many who are lost, lonely, ill, neglected and forgotten. Help us to celebrate the Holy One’s coming to dwell in our midst by sharing your love and kindness today and every day. Open our hearts and hands to embrace all people in our hearts this Christmas. In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.
